Hi Colleen,

I hope you're doing well. I'm sorry for the delay sending you information about interns volunteering at the DOI Fourth of July Celebration! Would something like this work?

The Department of the Interior is looking for ten volunteers to help with their Fourth of July party. Volunteers will primarily help with event set up and guest registration from 3:00-8:45 on Wednesday, July 4th. Afterwards, they will be invited up to join the event and to watch the fireworks from the Secretary's balcony or the roof of DOI. Considering the fireworks are launched from the Washington Monument, this is one of the best views in DC! Anyone interested in volunteering would need to first attend an overview check in on Wednesday, June 27th from 9:30-10:30. If anyone is interested in volunteering, please email Elinor Werner at elinor_werner@ios.doi.gov.

Warmly,
Elinor
